Welcome to the Official Web Site of Fyksland.

The Government of Fyksland has taken the initiative to bring you a definitive source of information to our nation on the Internet – a medium that has grown rapidly in popularity in recent years. Whilst the world is preparing its leap into the 21st century, this web site will serve as a resource of a wealth of information about our country, both to our citizens and to our friends from around the world.

Consistent with our goal at the Ministry of Public Works and Services, the Royal Bureau of Information strives to provide you with the most current and up-to-date facts. And under the commission of the Ministry of Culture and Communication, this web site is also aimed to promote internationally Fyksland's colourful culture and history through the World Wide Web.

As the Public Relations Director, it is my privilege to welcome you once again to this web site, and I trust that you will find the information useful in your research.

Best Regards,

Kilean Väsir
Director of Public Relations (International Marketing)
